

ABOUT THIS BOOK

This book is a compilation of articles and commentary's referencing thirteen of man's most common complaints concerning their life and God's will for it.

What is fascinating is that for every difficulty, issue or concern, we face as human beings concerning God's will for our lives; He has already addressed it in one way or another in the Bible. He has answered all of our concerns in the Bible either through the use of stories, parables, commands, principals, promises and or covenants.

This compilation is the authors attempt at providing a reference guide for those who may have missed or overlooked one or more of the thirteen answers God has provided for our everyday problems followed by more in-depth commentary's and or explanations where necessary.
