

ABOUT THIS BOOK

Marshal Harry Bailey is sent to advance training school to become a Supervising Marshal when he runs into an instructor dead set on becoming a Chief Instructor in 24 months.

His plan was to kill anyone who got in his way and that is just what he started doing. The Marshal Service's Top 3 candidate's for the position of Chief Instructor suddenly came up either dead, wounded or drummed out of the service in disgrace.

Our hero, Marshal Bailey is dragged into the investigation when a surprise candidate for the position of Chief Instructor is thrust into the mix after the second suspicious death of the three top candidates.

By now graduation was only hours away and all of the students were beginning to feel the pressure of not only passing the course but surveying it.

Follow Marshal Bailey as he studies for the exam of his life in the case of The Instructor.

Available at amazon

ONLINE