THE DAY AFTER LIFE 'THE WAY STATION' Part III'

This the final installment in the Christian Fiction series: The Way Station Part I, Beyond the Way Station Part II—To Hell for the Holidays, and The Way Station Part III -- The Day After Life.

If your goal is to get to Heaven then here is one interpretation from the book designed to provide "Basic Instruction Before Leaving Earth"; better known as the BIBLE, of what will happen the Day After Life.

Life is like a basketball game or any other team sport. The coach (God) sends you in to help win the game. The goal of Life is to win as interpreted by the one who created the game in the first place (God). So with that picture in your mind let me complete my explanation of the game of Life; the Coach told you to go in and win the game. That is the same thing he told all of the other players in the locker room. The Coach gave everyone their individual assignments; they practiced their assignments within the context of the play's the Coach designed. The Coach told every one about the opponent's strengths, strategies, even the individual players the opponent will be using during the game.

You on the other hand seemingly understood every thing the Coach has explained, you were given the play book (Bible) and told to study it in preparation for the is big game. You've seen the film clips of some of your opponent's team mates (Nightmares and real life meanies) and you've practiced how to defend yourself and or keep them from scoring.

Now here we find out what you can really do!
