

ABOUT THIS BOOK

Follow four people of substance, power, prestige and wealth on the must envied excursion of a life time, a trip to every child singles most wonderous phenomenon; the amusement park. But this isn't just any amusement park, this is the last amusement park to every be opened in the world.

This, the last amusement park was built to satisfy and mystify successful adults only. Those among us, whom money, fame, and fortune no longer matter. The rides are said to be to die for and the cost is said to be; well if you have to ask you really can't afford it. Know that the list of acceptable attendees is long and deep. Only the cream del-la crime are even welcome to request entry to the park and once in no one else will experience their experiences because all of the experiences were designed specifically for them. That is why it is called the excursion of a life time.

Follow these four people, a congressman, an entertainer, a businesswoman, and a mega church evangelist who are accompanied by a very unusual boat man on their way to the last amusement park, via the river Styx's; as they experience the biggest social event of eternity.

Now, can you see yourself looking forward to becoming to the Last Amusement Park?

Available at amazon

.ONLINE