

ABOUT THIS BOOK

The Case of the Second Precinct is a story about the life and death of a New York City Police Officer who if not for his family ties would have lived and died in disgrace. It was common knowledge that the cops of the 31st Street Precinct in the Bronx regularly put in 10 to 12 hours a day. These men and women of the 31st precinct tiredly worked day in and day out, quietly protecting and serving the people of Riverton Avenue in the Bronx. But only a few outside the walls of the 31st precinct knew what really went on during and after work. While most of the officers after a long day at the station returned to their comfy Long Island homes the few remaining religiously put in another 6 and sometimes 8 more hours at what was commonly known as the Second Precinct, better known as the Riverton Avenue Clubhouse, a secret police sanctioned criminal enterprise.

Follow Marshal Harry Bailey as he takes on his toughest undercover assignment ever and goes deep into the belly of a crime infested 10 square block corner of the City. Read as Marshal Bailey goes undercover to find, expose and take down another one of New York City's criminal masterminds; a criminal who learned how to cover his activities from inside the system. The question is, is this criminal mastermind so deeply hidden behind the NYPD's Blue Wall, wearing the gold bars of a ruthless Precinct Commander, who is known to stop at nothing to keep control of this criminal empire or is it someone else hidden even deeper behind the Blue wall of the Second Precinct?
