

ABOUT THIS BOOK

While man has continuously evolved from the dawn of time when Adam and Eve lived in the Garden of Eden and sat around and ate grapes and apples all day to the building of the great arch by Noah to the thousands of slave ships that crossed the Atlantic Ocean to the discovery of electricity, landing on the moon, the splitting of the atom and harnessing nuclear energy to the invention of the wireless cellphone many have come to ask has God kept up with this brave new world?

Since sin has not changed but continues to spread like wildfire when will God create some new fangled apparatus to squelch its unabated spread? This fictional account of God's response to the proliferation of sin in the natural realm offers one heavenly response to that age old question is there anything new under the sun.

They see visions they interpret visions or some do both. Then there are those Prophets who hear directly from God or discern God's words. Next many may be familiar with Prophets who sense things meaning they are anointed with feeling the presence of God's concerns they can lay hands on the sick and heal them. They can wave a hand and send the Holy Spirit across great distances to provide spiritual comfort and healings.

Now in the year 2050 God has manifested a new kind of Prophet one who can see and interpret things in the atmosphere, the place where Satan reigns. This new Prophet is anointed to discern any spiritual manifestations that rests on believers they come into contact with and interpret those things they did not see or that Satan is ready to manifest on them and stop it in the spirit and natural realms.
