

ABOUT THIS BOOK

Marshal Harry Bailey is drawn into an investigation involving his wife's estranged maternal father. Who had walked out on her and her mother years earlier. Unbeknownst to Marshal Bailey's wife or her mother, over time Bailey's wife's, father, rose to a powerful and influential position in a well known mega church as Senior Pastor. Along the way the father had a series of extramarital affairs with various church members including a woman who is now the Chairwoman of the Church Board of Directors.

The case heats up when the father is accused of having an affair with a young gay man and then killing him to keep their secret quiet.

As the case continues to unfold Marshal Bailey finds out that the victim was a twin son of the now church board Chairwoman who has marital plans for the free wheeling Pastor which lead to yet another murder.

Available at amazon

.ONLINE