

ABOUT THIS BOOK

William Stone a decorated Global Battle Commander is one of two men to have completed every mission during World War III without having to be metabolically reconfigured to withstand enemy weaponry. Now that the war is over and he has returned state side, to pick up his life where he left off, almost 5 years earlier, he finds himself in the fight of his life. With his family missing, his savings gone, his friends, and job gone, Stone is left to start his life all over again; that is not only unacceptable but it is the least of his problems.

Everywhere he turns someone is trying to kill him and he doesn't know why. So he goes underground moving from place to place trying to find some way back to the life he once knew. And as he does he becomes more and more aware of his ability to assimilate in different situations allowing him to keep avoiding his pursuers when he realized that those he once stood shoulder to shoulder with in battle are the ones pursuing him.

Finally he turns the tables and goes after them. Yes his buddies in battle have a new employer and they want Stone back in the fold, dead or alive. Join Bill Stone in this once in a life time journey to either survive and regain the life he once knew or to lose the only life he will ever know once Assimilated!
