

ABOUT THIS BOOK

The Funeral is a story about how one man's life's journey ends. Follow Uncle Earl as he begins his end-of-life journey to the cemetery of sin, wandering along life's journey from birth, to childhood, to teenager, to young adult, to adult, to mature adult, to senior citizen, to elder and finally to ancestor, looking for his eternal resting place.

When grandma walked over to the casket and started speaking in tongues no one knew what she was saying, but when Uncle Earl sat up in the coffin you would have thought that everyone would have started running for the exit....

Uncle Earl sat up in his coffin to find that everyone at his funeral was already dead...

Then as he made his way back to his coffin, he realized that there were some things he lived with, that no one knew about...some of them blessings and others regrets...

By the time he made it back to the coffin, he realized that he could have done a better job in many instances, then he said, he should of done a better job in all of those instances... That was when he moved from ghost to ancestor and found entry to the eternal gates...
